Normally, the Director of the Department of Corrections, wardens, and sheriffs are not liable under Section 1983 when a claim against them rests solely on the fact that they supervise persons who may have violated your rights. RE: Additional Information

On 6.17.19, An Incident took place, I, was badly bitten by a pitbull dog, on my lower left leg.

Norfolk police officer Jesse Amos put his hands in my pockets and remove my wallet, which contained my Drivers' License. I also had my car keys, an Applewatch.

This was done without a search warrant or my consent. Once officer Jesse Amos patted me down and seen I had no weapons that should have been it.

Moving forward, NO police place me in an ambulance and allowed me to go to Sentara Norfolk General Hospital without an officer in the ambulance, or one following the ambulance. So, at the corner of Redgate Ave and over

Courtney and I came out of the handcuffs, and escape out of the ambulance. I stayed on the run from 6.17.20 until 6.20.20. The Norfolk Police Department placed a copy of my driver's license picture on all (3) three news stations.

Norfolk Police Department was at suppose to have my driver's license without my driver's license and that apparently Norfolk police can't link me to no crime.

This is an violation of my 4th Amendment Right.

* I have transcripts that states from officer Jesse Adams, that he was the one who searched me along with (3) three other officers who witness this and also stated on record that they saw officer Jesse Adams put his hands in my pockets. I also have the warrant that states I was just "Detained" I was at arrest until 6.20.20 at 10:22 pm by Detective David Larry Todd.
